

D.C. Circuit Judicial Conference

Standing Committee on Pro Bono Legal Services

The Standing Committee on Pro Bono Legal Services is charged with reviewing and periodically reporting to the Circuit Judicial Conference on problems facing pro se litigants in federal courts and pro bono resources available to them. The Committee consists of ten members of the Bar who serve three-year terms staggered in such a way as to enable the Circuit to appoint or reappoint one-third of the committee each year. One of the members is appointed to serve as Chairperson. Judge Rosemary Collyer serves as liaison judge to this Committee.
