NOTICE

Attorneys scheduled to present argument or planning to attend oral arguments before the Court of Appeals are reminded not to come to the courthouse if they are experiencing flu-like symptoms or symptoms of COVID-19 (including cough, fever, and shortness of breath). Attorneys who are scheduled to present oral arguments are instructed to immediately contact Clifton Cislak, Chief Deputy Clerk, at (202) 216-7310 if they are unable to attend. Arguing attorneys are advised to limit the attendance of co-counsel and support staff at oral argument as much as possible. Please exercise caution to protect the health and well-being of your colleagues and court staff.
