Circuit Rule 41Issuance of Mandate; Stay of Mandate; Remand*(a) Mandate.

(1) Time for Issuance. While retaining discretion to direct immediate issuance of its mandate in an appropriate case, the court ordinarily will include as part of its disposition an instruction that the clerk withhold issuance of the mandate until 7 days after the expiration of the time for filing a petition for rehearing or a petition for rehearing en banc and, if such petition is timely filed, until 7 days after disposition thereof. Such an instruction is without prejudice to the right of any party at any time to move for expedited issuance of the mandate for good cause shown.

(2) Stay of Mandate. A motion for a stay of the issuance of mandate will not be granted unless the motion sets forth facts showing good cause for the relief sought. If the motion is granted, the stay ordinarily will not extend beyond 90 days from the date that the mandate otherwise would have issued. If a timely motion to stay issuance of the mandate has been filed, the mandate will not issue while the motion is pending. If a party obtains a stay of issuance of the mandate, that party must inform the clerk of this court whether the time for filing a petition for a writ of certiorari has been extended and whether a petition has been filed with the Supreme Court within the period of the stay.
